Study and have your pre-test properly done and ready for turn in on Friday. If you have been absent, come see me.	Beowulf chapters 1 &amp; 2 vocabulary test tomorrow. Chapters 3 &amp; 4 test on vocabulary is Thursday. Please study the next 2-3 lists of chapter words before we read the chapters. Stay one step ahead. Proper Planning Prevents Poor Performance. Keep up with the daily, story note taking in class and have ALL of your handouts out daily. Friday, you have your lists I and II spelling test (pre-test due). Some of you have your Thanksgiving /Fall-Harvest paper to turn into me ASAP. Thanks..... When you are absent, please read 3 Beowulf chapters per day that you are out so you are caught up with the reading when you return and can do the work. Come see me when you return to school.	Work on Sentence Combining Homework (due tomorrow). Finish the simile homework tonight if you were absent yesterday (due tomorrow). Know your chapters 3 &amp; 4 words for tomorrow's test. Remember to read 3 chapters ahead each day you are absent. Friday is your spelling test (lists I &amp; II). Teacher	Subject	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday Late Start 9:15
Mrs. C. Walden	Language Arts 8	Tomorrow is another Freak Test (vocabulary). Your weekend homework was to fill out the real definitions (not Kevin's versions) of the 20 words on the yellow handout. You will use this paper to take the test. Without these definitions, you will not do well. This is an "open handout" test. Come prepared with this paper TOMORROW. Have all of your book handouts here again tomorrow, so we can continue filling in the information together. Much of the information will aide you in your success on the Project (your Freak the Mighty storyboard). The Character Analysis Essay is also coming. If you have been absent, come see me.	No homework tonight except to make sure all of your Freak the Mighty handouts are completely filled in now and with you in your backpack tomorrow. We will discuss the project tomorrow and then you will complete the project at home. Directions, a rubric, and a due date will be given. Samples of what the project should look like have been hanging in the room for a week and we discussed the parts of the storyboard. Hopefully, you took the time to check them out on your own as well. If you are absent, see me upon your return. The Beowulf final will take about an hour so, you will need to make plans to stay after school to take this test. The Beowulf vocabulary test will take 25 minutes or so (at most). See me to set up a time for this as well.	Work on your storyboard masterpiece at home. It is due Monday (1/25). I have given you extra time (don't be last minute) so I expect greatness with all written and verbal directions followed. You have a copy of the directions/guidelines and a rubric. You have seen examples of finished products in class. You have a completely filled in Plot Analysis Outline to get you through the work (we did this together in class). We will watch the movie and begin the Character Analysis Essay . Complete your Kevin/Max worksheet (pink) with every detail you can in each section. Do most of this at home please. You will also receive a homophone worksheet tomorrow from the spelling unit (due Friday).	Story board project due January 25 Homophone work due tomorrow	Storyboards due Monday, 1/25. Homophone homework due today. Test make ups will be after school. Come see me if you have been absent to set up a make-up day and to get missing work. We will be working on the upcoming Character Analysis Essay/ information in class next week. Come prepared to take good notes. You need lots of info on your pink Kevin/Max handout by then. Grades come out in 2 weeks.
