Mrs. C. Walden	Language Arts 8		The Climb essay is due tomorrow. We are beginning My Brother Sam is Dead this week. Chapter quizzes will be the day after we finish our daily chapter readings in class (the chapters need to be reviewed/reread in order for students to be clear on the details). Notes need to be taken each day and students need to study these for the quizzes nightly, as well. Barnes and Noble carries these novels and the students know which version we are reading should you decide to purchase a personal copy for your student's use. Students are also getting some handouts to help them understand the novel. All yellow Information Papers are due for those who may not have turned theirs in yet.	My Brother Sam quiz tomorrow (chapter 1). Be sure to go over today's class information, the notes you should be taking on each chapter (daily), and review/read chapter 1 tonight (re read chapters nightly for the following day's quiz, throughout the reading of the novel).	Review today's novel reading and add details to your chapter notes. Be prepared for tomorrow's reading. Chapters 2 &amp; 3 combined chapter quiz will be MONDAY.	Study details well for Monday's chapters 2/3 Quiz. Always know the who, what, when, where, and why of everything. ☺
